

St. Mamertus

Archbishop of Vienne, France, from 461 until his death, the originator of the penitential practice of rogation days. This practice is marked by processions and Psalms for the three days preceding the feast of the Ascension. Mamertius, also listed as Mamertus, was known for his learning.